Speakers

Global Peace Convention 2017

Moral and Innovative Leadership: New Models for Peace and Development

Manila, The Philippines
February 28th - March 3rd

Global Peace Foundation
OPENING PLENARY

H.E. Vinicio Cerezo is former President of Guatemala. After surviving numerous attempts upon his life and after more than 20 years of fighting for democracy, Vinicio Cerezo led the process to restore the democratic and institutional process in Guatemala, becoming the first president of Guatemala's modern democratic era. As president, he was the creator, sponsor and one of the signers of the Esquipulas I and II Peace Agreements which led to peace throughout Central America. During his presidency he established respect for human rights, economic recovery, sustainable development, and today, promotes the process of regional integration, the rule of law and other significant advances. He is a founding member of the Latin American Presidential Mission and founder of the Esquipulas Foundation for the Integration of Central America.

H.E. Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo is a Filipina politician who served as the 14th President of the Philippines from 2001 until 2010, as the 10th Vice President of the Philippines from 1998 to 2001, as the incumbent deputy speaker of the 17th Congress and a member of the House of Representatives representing the 2nd District of Pampanga since 2010. She was the country’s second female president (after Corazon Aquino), and the daughter of former President Diosdado Macapagal. Arroyo is also the first duly elected female Vice President of the Philippines.

Dr. Edwin Feulner is the Founder, Chairman of the Asian Studies Center, and Chung Ju-yung Fellow at the Heritage Foundation, one of the nation’s leading research and public policy institutions located in Washington, DC. Dr. Feulner was awarded the Gwanghwa Medal, Order of Diplomatic Service by the President and National Assembly of Korea, and the Presidential Citizen Award, the second-highest civilian award in the United States, conferred by President Ronald Reagan. He has received honors from the governments of Taiwan and South Korea. He is the author of eight books, with a special concentration in East Asian affairs and a contributor to numerous journals and magazines.

Dr. Hyun Jin Moon is Founder and Chairman of the Global Peace Foundation (GPF). A humanitarian and entrepreneurial leader, Dr. Moon founded GPF to promote a compelling vision of peace based on universal principles and shared values by the world’s great religious and cultural traditions. As the founder of Service for Peace and other international service organizations, he is dedicated to empowering leaders through activities that contribute to bringing peace between peoples and nations. In 2014, he published the best-seller Korean Dream: A Vision for a Unified Korea in Korean. The book was later named Book of the Year and has been published in Japanese translation (2015) and in English (2016).

Hon. Jin-Pyo Kim is a former Deputy Prime Minister of Strategy and Finance from Korea, and is a four-term member of the National Assembly. Hon. Kim previously served as Supreme Council Member of the Democratic Party, Floor Leader of the Democratic United Party, and Minister of Education and Human Resources Development as well as Minister of Finance and Economy. Hon. Kim received his M.A. in Public Administration from University of Wisconsin Madison and B.A. in Law from Seoul National University.

Professor Madhav Das Nalapat is Director of Geopolitics and International Relations and UNESCO Peace Chair at Manipal University in India. He is also Editorial Director of The Sunday Guardian and Itv network (India), and Vice-Chair of Manipal University’s Advanced Research Group. He has been Editor of The Times of India and Editor of the Mathrubhumi. Dr. Nalapat writes expertly on international affairs and appears regularly on global media as a respected authority on geopolitics.
PLENARY II GLOBAL STRATEGIC PRIORITIES

Hon. Jesus “Jess” Gestuveo Dureza is a Filipino lawyer, consultant, journalist and politician. He is the incumbent adviser on the peace process to President Rodrigo Duterte and Founding Chairman of Advocacy MindaNow Foundation, a group advocating for peace in Mindanao. He has held various appointive positions in past administrations including the chairmanship of the Mindanao Development Authority, the chairmanship of the Government Peace Negotiating Panel for Talks with the Moro Islamic Liberation Front, and Presidential Assistant for Mindanao. He is also a former Representative of the 1st District of Davao City in the Philippine House of Representatives.

Prof. Dr. KH. Said Aqiel Siradj is an Indonesia Islamic scholar who serves as General Chairman of Pengurus Besar Nahdlatul Ulama (NU), the largest Muslim organization in the world with more than 70 million members across Indonesia. It also has made substantial charitable contributions in the fields of educational development, health care, and poverty alleviation. NU is a GPF global interfaith partner, jointly working with Middle East nations as well as ASEAN countries. Prof. Dr. Kh. Said is a member of the Global Leadership Council of the Global Peace Foundation.

Dr. Leonard Swidler is Founder and President of the Dialogue Institute and Professor of Catholic Thought and Interreligious Dialogue in the Religion Department of Temple University. At Temple and as a visiting professor at many universities around the world he has mentored a generation of U.S. and international scholars in the work of interreligious dialogue. He has proposed a ‘Universal Declaration of a Global Ethic,’ based on various religious and ethical communities, ethnic groups, and geographical religions, encouraging work and discussion in drafting their own versions of a global ethic.

Hon. Hwa Gahp Hahn is President of Korea Peace Foundation and Senior advisor to Action for Korea United, a coalition of more than 800 civil society organizations for Korean Unification. He served the National Assembly of Korea as member for 4 terms from 1992 and elected to be Chairman for the Ruling New Millennium Democratic Party. He was awarded Officer’s Cross of the Order of Merit from the Federal Republic of Germany.

Jimmy Jam and Terry Lewis (James Samuel Harris III and Terry Steven Lewis) are a six-time Grammy awarding production team who have produced 16 No. 1 songs in Billboard hot 100. The team has worked with artists including Michael Jackson, Janet Jackson, Mariah Carey and Prince. Jimmy Jam and Terry Lewis announced their intention to produce a song to promote a peaceful reunification of the Korean Peninsula at the International Young Leaders Assembly Global Youth Summit at the UN General Assembly Hall in 2016 to advance the dream of global peace.

PLENARY III GLOBAL PEACE FOUNDATION’S MAJOR INITIATIVES

Aldrin Nituma is the Executive Director and President of Global Peace Foundation in the Philippines an international organization based in Washington DC that engages and organizes a global network of public and private-sector partners who develop community, national and regional peace building models as the foundation for ethical and cohesive societies. He has a Bachelor Degree in Civil Engineering and Masters in Business Management. Mr. Nituma is a staunch advocate of youth empowerment especially in realizing the limitless potential of young people as nation and peace builders.
John Oko is the Country Director for Global Peace Foundation Nigeria. Working with Muslim and Christian faith leaders in several communities that have stood segregated, GPF Nigeria’s ‘One Family under God’ Campaign has been hosting a series of peacebuilding workshops in Kaduna State to transform attitudes and behaviors of individuals and groups, with an emphasis on shared values across religious traditions. Mr. Oko previously served as National President of Youth Federation for World Peace Nigeria during which he facilitated partnerships with the Economic Community of West African States to support youth leaders of the 16 ECOWAS countries.

Inteck Seo is the President of Global Peace Foundation – Korea and Co-Chair of Action for Korea United, a coalition of over 800 NGOs promoting a grassroots movement to support Korean unification and has played a leading role in the “One K Global Campaign” with leaders from diverse sectors. Mr. Seo is also a member of the National Unification Advisory Council to the President of the Republic of Korea. Mr. Seo has been involved with the Global Peace Foundation in many of its ground-breaking initiatives to advance awareness and advocacy for Korean unification and overseas development work. He was instrumental in the launch of the All-Lights Village Project that uses solar powered lanterns to spark community development by setting the grounds of improved literacy, healthy, economic activity and safety.

Rt. Hon. Jacob Oulanyah is the Deputy Speaker of the Parliament of Uganda and Member of Parliament for Omoro County in Gulu District. He is an Attorney of the Courts of Judicature of Uganda and a Notary Public. He has specialised training in legal and legislative drafting and has experience in drafting laws and agreements, including peace agreements. He taught legislative drafting and constitutional law to post graduate law students at the Law Development Centre. He was re-elected Deputy Speaker of the Parliament of Uganda in May 2016.

James P. Flynn is International President of the Global Peace Foundation. As the executive officer of a large, global network of chapters, he provides leadership and management for Global Peace Foundation’s diverse portfolio of peacebuilding and international development work. His robust leadership is reflected in the planning and convening of Global Peace Leadership Conferences on four continents and in the preeminent Global Peace Convention, as well as in the organization’s branding, educational content, and operational management. Mr. Flynn has worked in the nonprofit sector for more than thirty years, and served as an educator, international conflict mediator, interfaith facilitator, and grassroots leader of family strengthening and youth violence prevention programs.

Cat Lockman has more than 20 years of executive leadership experience in the social justice field. She has raised millions of dollars for non-profits, empowered women, developed programs for children and family services, and served as the lead fundraising and communications officer. In Washington D.C. she has led fundraising and strategy on policy advocacy and in international development and human rights fields. Cat is an esteemed veteran at building, enhancing and restructuring fundraising operations, and providing professional support for resource development and program outcomes.

David Caprara is Vice-President for Strategic Partnerships with the Global Peace Foundation in Washington, D.C. He is also a Nonresident Fellow on International Volunteering and Service at the Brookings Institution and board member of the Africa Conference on Volunteer Action for Peace and Development. He previously served as a Deputy Assistant Secretary for the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development and as director of Faith-Based Initiatives at the Corporation for National and Community Service.
INTERFAITH PEACEBUILDING SESSION 1:

SHARED VALUES: KEY TO COHESION IN DIVERSE SOCIETIES

H.E. Brigadier Ahmad Khalfan Al Mansoori is Secretary General for Mohammed Bin Rashid Al Maktoum Award for World Peace (MRWAP). He led various government institutions and establishments before joining the MRAWP. He extended his service to Mohammed bin Rashid Center for Islamic Culture and Heritage, Islamic Affairs and Charitable Activities Department etc. He holds a bachelor degree in law.

Rev. Canon Rosemary Mgobo is the Provincial Secretary of the Anglican Church of Kenya. An ordained priest and canon of the Church, she is currently the Chairperson of the National Council of Churches of Kenya. Cannon Rosemary holds a Bachelor of Education and a Masters in Theology and Biblical Counseling and is a teacher, head-teacher, inspector of schools, lecturer, and university council member. Her book, Woman, a Vessel of Honour and Great Potential, expresses her desire to uplift women.

Dr. Syafiq A. Mughni is Professor of Islamic Civilization at National Islamic University, Surabaya since 1997. He was also Rector of Muhammadiyah University at Sidoarjo from 2001-2005. He previously served as Chairman of Muhammadiyah Provincial Board of East Java; Deputy Chairman of Muhammadiyah Central Board for Health and Humanitarian Affairs; Deputy Chairman of Muhammadiyah Central Board for Interfaith and Intercivilization Relations; Member of Provincial Board of Indonesian Council of Ulama. He is a member of Indonesian Society of History and advisor to Board of Interfaith Harmony, Provincial Government of East Java, Indonesia.

INTERFAITH PEACEBUILDING SESSION 2:

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM: AN ESSENTIAL HUMAN RIGHT IN A FREE AND JUST SOCIETY

Dr. K.H. Marsudi Syuhud has served as the General Secretary of the Central Board of Nahdlatul Ulama (PBNU), Indonesia’s largest Muslim organization with membership numbering more than 50 million. He is now the Chairman of PBNU in charge of International Relations and Economic Development. He is recognized for his outstanding leadership in addressing and raising awareness about issues of interfaith and peace in Indonesia and the world.

Archbishop Antonio Javellana Ledesma, S.J., D.D. is the Archbishop of the Metropolitan Archdiocese of Cagayan de Oro. Ledesma was born on March 28, 1943 in Iloilo City, and was ordained as a Jesuit priest in 1973. He was formerly vice-president of the Catholic Bishops’ Conference of the Philippines (CBCP), and has served as the chair of the Catholic Bishops’ Conference of the Philippines Commission on Inter-religious Dialogue.

Dr. Chandra Setaiwan is the Chairman of the Global Peace Foundation Indonesia and Commissioner of the Commission for the Supervision of Business Competition, Republic of Indonesia. He also serves as Advisor to Rector of the President University in Indonesia; Co-founder of the Indonesian Conference on Religion and Peace (ICRP); and member of the Priesthood Council of MATAKIN (the Supreme Council for the Confucian Religion in Indonesia). He also previously served as a Commissioner of the Indonesia National Commission on Human Rights.

Lt. Col. John Gallagher (Ret.) was CEO of the Institute for Global Engagement until 2016. Most recently, he was as an advisor to the U.S. Presidential Transition on cabinet-level appointments. He has also advised top military leaders in Afghanistan, the Middle East and the Pentagon, and was a White House Fellow on the National Security Council. He taught counterterrorism at West Point, co-authored / edited Debating the War of Ideas, and was a 2016 Presidential Leadership Scholar.
INTERFAITH PEACEBUILDING SESSION 3: DIALOGUE AND TRUST: REAL LESSONS IN COUNTERING VIOLENT EXTREMISM

Kawa Hassan is Director of the Middle East and North Africa Program at the EastWest Institute’s Brussels office, where he leads track two initiatives focused on trust building, conflict prevention and countering violent extremism. Kawa is a member of the Atlantic Council’s Task Force on the Future of Iraq, which brings together Iraqi experts from around the globe who make recommendations to the U.S. president dealing effectively with the challenges posed by the conflict in Iraq. He is a regular commentator on international and regional media about Iraq, Syria, Kurdistan and Middle East affairs.

Col. Steve Miska (Ret) is the Director of the First Amendment Voice of which Global Peace Foundation is a founding member. He also founded Servant Leader Citizen Consulting, Inc. since retiring as a Colonel after 25 years of service in the military, and three combat tours in Iraq. SLC helps clients understand national security and counterterrorism issues in an increasingly global environment. Previously, he served in the White House as a Director for Iraq on the National Security Council. In 2007, Steve led a team that established an underground railroad for dozens of interpreters from Baghdad to Amman to the United States. He earned top academic honors as a Counterterrorism Fellow at the College of International Security Affairs and has taught national security at Marine Corps War College.

H.E. Dr. Amani Abeid Karume is former President of Zanzibar. He previously served in the government office as Chief Treasurer, Principal Secretary in the Ministry of Finance, Principal Secretary in the Ministry of Planning, and Principal Secretary in the Ministry of Communications and Transport. He returned to government and politics in 1990 when he was elected to the Zanzibar House of Representatives. In 1995, he was re-elected in multiparty polls.

Dr. Chetan Kumar is Senior Advisor on Peacebuilding to the UN Resident Coordinator and to UNDP in the Philippines. His current work focuses on building national and local capacities for the prevention and resolution of conflicts, the promotion of dialogue, and the constructive management of diversity through the reform of governance. Over the past fifteen years, he has provided significant assistance for the development and implementation of such initiatives in twenty-one countries in Asia, Africa, and the Caribbean, including in Haiti, Guyana, Ghana, Zimbabwe, Kenya, Lesotho, Malawi, Nepal and the Philippines.

INTERFAITH PEACEBUILDING SESSION 4: STRATEGIC AND PRACTICAL APPLICATIONS OF A GLOBAL ETHIC ON THE LOCAL LEVEL: THE ROLE OF FAITH LEADERS

Dr. Edilson Divino de Brito is a police officer and currently a visiting professor at the Lato Sensu Institute, where he teaches Education and Society and Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure. He is a Presbyter at the Baptist church “Renascer” and active in the areas of social justice, peace development, interfaith and cooperation between public institutions and civil society in Goiânia, Brazil. He holds a Ph.D. in Legal and Social Sciences.

Sheik Halliru Abdullahi Maraya is a prominent Islamic cleric in Kaduna State of Northern Nigeria. Sheik Maraya was a school teacher and is a regular preacher during Tafsir on Television and Radios. He is formerly the Special Adviser on Islamic and Hajj Matters to the Executive Governor of Kaduna State in Nigeria and affectionately known as one of the “twins of Kaduna” for his close personal relationship with Rev. Hayab. Both serve as principal facilitators in forums and workshops throughout Kaduna State as Co-coordinators of GPF Nigeria’s One Family under God campaign.
Rev. John Joseph Hayab is a Public Relations Officer and former Secretary of the Christian Association of Nigeria (CAN) Kaduna State chapter. Rev. Hayab is formerly the Special Adviser on Religious Affairs (Christian Matters) to the Executive Governor of Kaduna State, Northern Nigeria. Hayab also served as the spokesperson of CAN representing 19 Northern States and the Federal Capital Abuja. He has actively engaged in issues relating to religious crises and freedom, conflict resolution, human rights and good governance. He serves as a principal facilitator and Co-coordinator in forums and workshops throughout Kaduna State for Global Peace Foundation, Nigeria.

Barry Fennell is an experienced youth and community facilitator with Co-operation Ireland, the leading peacebuilding charity organisation in Ireland. He has extensive facilitation, project development, and group work experience. Barry has managed and delivered a number of local and regional peace and reconciliation projects that have worked with many stakeholders and different communities including families from the British military community. He is currently working alongside Global Peace Foundation in the United States on a youth development and diversity project in Jersey City, New Jersey.

Dr. Marites Guingona-Africa is founder and executive director of The Peacemakers’ Circle Foundation, Inc., an interfaith organization that promotes various forms of dialogue in building mutually respectful and harmonious relationships between people of diverse cultures and beliefs. Her work of eighteen years has been rooted in grassroots Muslim-Christian community-building around conflict-ridden communities in Metro Manila and North Cotabato, Mindanao. She is a lecturer on Muslim-Christian Dialogue for Nation-Building and Conflict Transformation and Peace Among Religions at Ateneo de Manila University.

Dr. Alan Largey was educated in Belfast and for many years, during the worst of Northern Ireland’s troubles, taught in an inner-city school where the pupils suffered greatly from the effect of on-going violence. After leaving education he spent a short time in the business world before joining Co-operation Ireland where he has managed several projects around Community Engagement and Capacity Building, including work in the United States. He is involved in the promotion of Co-operation Ireland’s ‘Peace-sharing’ efforts globally.

Swami Shantatmananda is the current Secretary of the Ramakrishna Mission, Delhi, India. The organization emphasizes healthcare, disaster relief, rural management, tribal welfare, education, and culture. These core values are achieved through the direct participation of both monks and disciples who live in their own homes. At its core is the propagation of religious tolerance and respect for other religions.

Dr. Jonathan Keir is Professor of Global Humanities at the Global Ethic Institute, Germany. He is a Postdoctoral Research Fellow at the Weltethos Institut at Tübingen University (Germany) and International Ethics Project Coordinator for the Karl Schlecht Foundation. He is currently examining the possibility of uniting Hans Küng’s Global Ethic Project with Confucian and Islamic models of intercultural dialogue under the banner of an “Ethics for Everyone.”
Bishop Emerito P. Nacpil (retired) is former Executive Director of the Association of Theological Schools in Southeast Asia and Dean of the Southeast Asia Graduate School of Theology, the positions he was holding when the Philippines Central Conference elected him to the episcopacy in November 1980. He had been Chairman of the Commission on Church Structure of the Philippines Central Conference for the past two quadrennia. Bishop Nacpil has also been very active in ecumenical affairs, serving on both the Faith and Order Commission and the Central Committee of the World Council of Churches.

Dr. Leonard Swidler, Founder and President of the Dialogue Institute, see Plenary session

INTERFAITH PEACEBUILDING MODERATORS

Rev. Dr. Paul Murray serves as the Vice President of the Global Peace Foundation USA where he leads the Campaign for American Renewal along with a national network of faith leaders focused upon moral and innovative leadership. An ordained minister and senior pastor, Murray has served in ministry for more than twenty-five years. He is an award-winning author who holds a Doctoral Degree from Howard University, a Master of Divinity and a Master of Art from Liberty Baptist Theological Seminary, and a Bachelor of Science from the University of Phoenix.

Imam Talib Shareef is the President and Imam of the historic Masjid Muhammad, The Nation’s Mosque in Washington, DC. He is a Chief Master Sergeant of the United States Air Force after 30 years. He has an MBA, a Diploma from the Imam Muhammad ibn Saud Islamic University, and graduated from the Defense Language Institute Foreign Language Center in Arabic and Middle Eastern Studies. He served as Imam in five U.S. cities and seven military locations around the world. He has received the Kingdom of Morocco’s highest Royal Medal for his outstanding interfaith leadership. He has been honored by President Obama at the White House in recognition of his service.

Gail Hambleton is Director of the Interfaith Peacebuilding Division of the Global Peace Foundation. She works specifically as the USA Director of the Safe Haven Campaign, Interfaith Alliance to Abolish Human Trafficking. She lived and worked in Africa for eight years, serving in the mission and humanitarian aid fields. Her passion for peace is rooted in her difficult experiences during the war in Zimbabwe, the military coup in Kenya, and the aftermath of genocide in Rwanda. Ms. Hambleton was instrumental in establishing the humanitarian aid organization Women for Women in Rwanda, in 1997.

Rebecca Mays is Executive Director of the Dialogue Institute at Temple University, in Philadelphia, USA. As a Quaker educator, teaching for thirty years, she holds degrees in Literature, Folklore and Folklife, and Religious Studies. Prior to coming to Temple in 2008, she designed a Master’s program in English and Publishing at Rosemont College in Pennsylvania. She has established Jewish and Muslim colleagues in teaching the Gospels and Quaker studies at Pendle Hill, a Quaker study center located near Media, PA.

Alan J. Inman currently serves as president of the USA Chapter of the Global Peace Foundation and Regional Representative for North America and the Republic of Ireland. Mr. Inman served as National Director for the Institute for Responsible Fatherhood, Executive Director of Minority Alliance International, and has been a Presidential appointee to the White House Domestic Advisory Council. He hosted a weekly radio talk show for over five years - Insight with Al Inman, and is the author of the popular book The Colors of Love.
KOREA UNIFICATION SESSION 1: LAYING THE FOUNDATION FOR ONE KOREA

Professor Madhav Das Nalapat is Director of Geopolitics and International Relations and UNESCO Peace Chair at Manipal University. He is also Editorial Director of The Sunday Guardian and Itv network (India), Vice-Chair of Manipal University’s Advanced Research Group, and Director of the Department of Geopolitics. He has been the Editor of the Times of India and Editor of the Mathrubhumi. He writes on international affairs and is a regular analyst and commentator on geopolitical issues for numerous global television networks.

Dr. Changmin Shin is a professor emeritus and former Dean of the College of Business Administration at the Chung-Ang University. He is the director of Tongildaebak Institute of Korean Reunification. He is the author of Tongildaebak (Unification is Bonanza: The Road to One Korea Prosperity in Peace). He earned a PhD at Claremont Graduate School in economics, and a MA at the University of Southern California in USA. He is a graduate of the College of Law, Seoul National University.

Dr. Young Tae Kwon is a senior researcher of Global Peace Institute since 2013, and has proposed new views on issues such as reunification ideology, human rights in North Korea, and civil reunification movement. As an expert in North Korean law, he published a book titled North Korean Laws Unknown to Both South & North. He graduated from Korea University College of Law and earned his Ph.D. in North Korean Studies from Dongguk University.

Dr. Chan-il Ahn is President of the World Institute for North Korea Studies, Chair Professor Emeritus of Open Cyber University of Korea, Co-Chair of Action for Korea United, Senior Advisor of Ministry of National Defense, and Member of National Unification Advisory Council. He was born in Uiju North Korea, then he defected to South Korea in 1979. He earned a PhD at Konkuk University in politics. MA at Korea University Graduate School, and is a graduate of the College of Political Science and Diplomacy at Korea University.

KOREA UNIFICATION SESSION 2: ASIA-PACIFIC PERSPECTIVES ON ONE KOREA

Dr. Joseph Bosco served as China country director in the Office of the Secretary of Defense, 2005-2006. He taught a graduate seminar on U.S.-China relations at Georgetown’s School of Foreign Service. He is a senior fellow at the Institute for Korean-American Studies, a member of the U.S.-China task force at the Center for the National Interest, and a nonresident senior associate at the Center for Strategic and International Studies.

Mr. Chanwoo Lee is a Fellow at the Japan Center for Economic Research in Tokyo. Before coming to Japan, he was a member of the Central Committee of the National Unification Advisory Council of South Korea (1998-99), which is a constitutional institution to advise the President on the formulation of peaceful unification policy. He is an author of articles and research papers on Korea Peninsula issues, including economic cooperation among the northeast Asian region.

Dr. Chu Shulong is Professor of Political Science and International Relations at the School of Public Policy and Management and the director of the Institute of International Strategic and Development Studies at Tsinghua University in Beijing, China. He is also a Professor at China’s Ministry of Foreign Affairs’ Party School and an advisor to China’s Central Television and international reporting, Director of the Center for Northeast Asian Studies of Dalian University of Foreign Languages.

Mr. Nanjin Dorjsuren, is Head of the Study team for China, East Asian Studies at the Mongolia Institute for Strategic Studies. He is also Head of the Council of Security and Cooperation in Asia Pacific, Mongolia Secretariat. He earned a degree in international relations from Mongolian National University and master’s degree in Policy Science from Ritsumeikan University in Kyoto, Japan. He also holds a master’s degree in China Studies from Zhejiang University in Hangzhou, China. He is one of the main organizers of Ulaanbaatar Dialogue for Northeast Asian Security, initiated by the Mongolian President.
Dr. Alexander Zhebin, a well-known Russian expert on Korea. He worked for 12 years in North Korea as a journalist and a diplomat. He is Director of the Center for Korean Studies at the Institute of Far Eastern Studies in Moscow since 2004. His fields of research include political developments in the DPRK, Russia’s relations with DPRK and ROK, and security and nuclear problems on the Korean peninsula. He is the author of three books and numerous articles on Korean affairs in academic journals, and newspapers at home and abroad, and a commentator on major Russian television.

Dr. Edwin Feulner, Founder, Chairman of the Asian Studies Center, and Chung Ju-yung Fellow at the Heritage Foundation, see listing above.

Dr. Jai-poong Ryu is Professor Emeritus, Loyola University, and Founder of One Korea Foundation. BA from Law College Seoul National University: PhD/sociology from University Minnesota. Main interest areas: macro-sociological interpretation of history, conflict resolution, and social institutions. He served as an advisor for two Baltimore mayors and the US Census Bureau. In 2015 for the 70th commemoration of Korea’s liberation and division, Ryu led OKF for the 1Dream1Korea Campaign at the Lincoln Memorial and Capitol Hill with Global Peace Foundation.

Hon. Choong Whan Kim served as member of the National Assembly of the Republic of Korea from 2004 to 2012 and as Chair of the Foreign Affairs, Trade and Unification Committee during his last term. He has served as Chair of Institute for Peaceful Northeast Asia and Unified Korea and been actively serving as Co-Chair for the Action for Korea United, the biggest civil society network for Korean unification in Korea. He formerly served as Mayor of Gangdong County, Seoul for 3 consecutive terms from 1995 to 2003 and as President of 25 Seoul Mayors’ Council. He received his Ph.D. in Urban Administration from University of Seoul. He is currently a professor of politics.

Dr. Chan-il Ahn is President of the World Institute for North Korea Studies, see above section.

Dr. Jin Shin is Director of National Strategy Institute and a professor in Department of Political Science & Diplomacy at Chungnam National University in Korea. Dr. Shin serves as president of Institute for Peace Affairs in Korea and president of Korea Chungchong Political Association. He is also a recipient of numerous academic awards, including the Global Peace Award.

Dr. Jai-poong Ryu, Professor Emeritus, Loyola University, and Founder of One Korea Foundation, see listing above.

Dr. Joseph Bosco, Senior Fellow, Institute for Korean-American Studies, see listing above.
EDUCATION SESSION 1: TRANSFORMING EDUCATION OUTCOMES WITH CHARACTER AND CREATIVITY

Prof. Leonor Magtolis Briones is the Secretary of the Philippine Department of Education and President of Social Watch Philippines, Inc. She is also Professor and Director for Policy and Executive Development at National College of Public Administration and Governance, University of the Philippines System, Diliman. She served as Treasurer of the Philippines, Bureau of Treasury from August 1998 to February 2001 and was the Presidential Adviser for Social Development with Cabinet Rank at Office of the President.

Ronald Adamat is a Commissioner of the Office of the President’s Commission on Higher Education. He is a former congressman and representative of the Indigenous People Sector of the 10th Congress of the Philippines and Senior Consultant for Indigenous Peoples Affairs. Commissioner Adamat is also a special lecturer of the Polytechnic University of the Philippines and Founding Chairman of the Movement for Better Mindanao. The former lawmaker is the principal author of RA 8371, a law that created the National Commission on Indigenous Peoples.

Dr. Tony Devine, Ed. D. is the international Vice President of Education, Global Peace Foundation. He has more than 30 years of leadership experience in the non-governmental sector. He is the founder of the Character and Creativity Initiative, an experiential learning environment that builds twenty-first century competencies in schools. He is the founder of Leap Hubs, which are incubator spaces in public schools, where students are mentored in entrepreneurship and leadership to develop businesses and social enterprises. He works with the public, private and social sectors to transform education around the world.

Richard Pomar Burgos is the Director of the Science and Technology Information Institute, Department of Science and Technology (DOST), Philippines. DOST is the executive department of the Philippine Government responsible for the coordination of science and technology related projects in support of national development. He previously worked for the International Crops Research Institute for the Semi-Arid Tropics in India. He is an active member of the International Public Relations Association, and supports programs to help blind children acquire computer literacy skills through Resources for the Blind Inc.

Mr. Andreas Schleicher is Director for Education and Skills, and Special Advisor on Education Policy to the Secretary-General at the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) in Paris. As a key member of the OECD Senior Management team, he promotes the work of the Directorate for Education and Skills on a global stage which includes the Programme for International Student Assessment, the OECD Survey of Adult Skills, the OECD Teaching and Learning International Survey, and the development and analysis of benchmarks on the performance of education systems.

EDUCATION SESSION 2: LEARNING FOR A PURPOSE:RESHAPING WHAT IT MEANS TO EDUCATE

Dr. Dinah Mindo was the Assistant Regional Director of Department of Education – National Capital Region before her promotion to Regional Director and transfer to Region III. She also served as Division Superintendent of Schools in Romblon and Laguna. Currently she is the Chairman of Global Peace Education Division Philippines. She was honored by the Professional Regulation Commission as one of the Philippines’ world-class professionals for 2003. She was cited by the commission as Professional Teacher awardee for her achievements as a teacher, educator and education executive.
Maria Elaine Perez De Velez is the CEO and Co-Founder of FrontLearners, an e-learning content and solution provider to boost student competency and to increase school enrollment. Elaine De Velez served as Senior Director of Johnson & Johnson Asia Pacific Singapore and received CAS Distinguished Alumni Award from University of the Philippines Los Banos. Elaine De Velez is 7th Place in Chemistry Board, 1986 and holds a BS Chemistry from University of the Philippines, Los Banos in 1985. She also holds a Master of Business Administration from University of Adelaide in 2008.

Dr. Ricardo E. Rotoras is the President of the Philippine Association of State Universities and Colleges (PASUC) and President of Mindanao University of Science and Technology (MUST).

Mann Rentoy is the Founding Executive Director of Character Education Partnership Philippines, an international affiliate of Character.org in Washington, DC, USA, which provides training and resources related to character formation program in schools. He has spoken widely in the United States and in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. He is a lecturer from the University of Asia and the Pacific and a Founding Executive Director of Westbridge School in Iloilo City.

Rina Lopez-Bautista is the founder and driving force behind the Knowledge Channel Foundation Inc. (KCFI) that operates the Knowledge Channel, the Philippines’ first and only all-curriculum educational television channel. Over the years, KCFI has expanded its work beyond television, making its educational programs available online through kchonline.ph and offline through other media. She is a passionate proponent of Digital Age Learning and one of the leaders paving the way for the global Filipino learner to be empowered with twenty-first-century skills through technology and social media.

Ricardo Pama is President of the University of the Cordilleras. He was one of the scholars sent to SEATO Graduate School of Engineering, now Asian Institute of Technology, its main purpose was to bring the “Cream of the Crop” from Asia and the Pacific to study, to work and to live together and later to return to their respective countries. Then he became a professor in Structural Engineering, and Vice President for Development and Academic Affairs.

Stephanie V. Orlino is the Education Program Head of Smart Communications, Inc. For the past 17 years, Stephanie has devoted her time in community development work. Her projects include the longest-running industry-academe linkage program, recognized by Fortune as one of 50 such initiatives all over the world; a nationwide broadbanding initiative for basic education; the country’s first mobile application for Filipino children aligned with the curriculum; and the country’s first school-to-market start-up Program with technology-based applications.

Stephen M. Njoroge is the Director and Secretary of Board of Management at the Center for Mathematics, Science and Technology Education in Africa (CEMASTEA). CEMASTEA is mandated by the Ministry of Education to build and enhance capacity of mathematics and science teachers and providing quality in-service Education and Training (NSET). He served as the Chief Principal of Moi Forces Academy which was the first school to implement the Character and Creativity Initiative and Leap Hubs. He is the CEO of SMASE Africa Association.

Josephin Galla is the Director of Public Sector & Security, SAP Asia Pte. Ltd. She assists senior decision-makers in government with an understanding of the social and economic responsibilities of public services organizations, the challenges they face, and the opportunities that they have through the application of technology and digitalization. She is a strategic thinker around digital government solutions that use technologies such as cloud computing, enterprise mobility, and analytics to help organizations improve performance and develop forward-thinking, citizen-centric programs.
EDUCATION SESSION 4: SCALING INNOVATIVE MODELS FOR DEEP AND LASTING CHANGE

Dr. Malcolm Garma is the Regional Director of the Department of Education Region III (Central Luzon). He began his career in education as a classroom instructor and leader in the U.P. Integrated School. He holds a Master’s Degree in Urban and Regional Planning and Business Administration from the University of the Philippines and the Ateneo Graduate School of Business.

Andrea Escalona is IBM’s Corporate Citizenship Manager in IBM Asia Pacific & Greater China Group and has leadership responsibility for IBM’s Corporate Service Corps, the largest corporate, skills-based pro-bono consulting program in the world. Ms. Escalona also oversees grant making in the ASEAN region using IBM’s broad portfolio of philanthropic program initiatives that harness IBM’s talent and technology in addressing social challenges related to education, healthcare, disasters, women, economic development and many more.

Madson Rodrigues Ribeiro is the Manager of Institutional Articulation, Secretary of Public Security and Prison Administration of Goiás, Goiânia, Brazil. He is the general manager for the program “Goiás for Life” that aims to overcome institutional barriers to reduce crime and increase social stability at the state level. The initiative involves coordination among a variety of state agencies and engaging the Ministry of Education and all the schools of the state.

Daniel Juma Omondi is the Executive Director of the Kenya Chapter of the Global Peace Foundation. He oversees Leap Hubs, a Leadership and Entrepreneurship program in schools in partnership with Google, Samsung, Intel, Cisco, Airtel Networks and Oracle and the Character and Creativity Initiative that is transforming schools in preparing students for future success with the leadership and character competencies. Previously Daniel worked for the Korean Government Trade and Investment Promotion Agency as an Assistant Manager in charge of Trade and Investment promotion.

EDUCATION SESSION 5: DEVELOPING MORAL AND INNOVATIVE LEADERS

Barry Fennell, Facilitator, Co-operation Ireland (see Interfaith)

Dr. Alan Largey, Project Manager, Co-operation Ireland (see Interfaith)

Joe Carvin is the founder and CEO of One World United and Virtuous an organization committed to improving human understanding and cooperation. The primary vehicle is One World Youth Clubs which are in six countries. The goal is creating a global learning network of leaders of character, knowledgeable of the world around them and capable of changing it for the better. Previously Joe worked in emerging market finance for 30 years with a focus on South America and recently completed 8 years as Town Supervisor of the Town of Rye, New York.

EDUCATION MODERATORS

Dr. Florida Labuguen is the Executive Director of the Philippine Society of NSTP Educators and Implementers and Technological University of the Philippines’ Vice President for Administration and Finance. She is an active advocate of peace education in various capacities and supporter of Global Peace Foundation’s vision and mission of instilling peace. She was recognized as the Most Outstanding Extension Worker in the university system.

Dr. Isabelita Borres has served in the Philippines Department of Education for 37 years, as a teacher, junior college instructor, college instructor, researcher, Dean of Student Affairs, Chairman of English Department, Graduate School Professor, thesis mentor, education program specialist, planning officer, Assistant Schools Division Superintendent, in Region 10 and Oroqueta City and Region 13, Schools Division Superintendent of Region 13 and Region 10, Assistant Regional Director of Region 13, and Regional Director of Region 13, Region 12, Region 3 and Region 9.
Gisela May A. Albano is the Dean of the College of Computer and Information Sciences of the Polytechnic University of the Philippines. She has a Chemical Engineering degree from the University of St. Tomas who ventured in Information Technology and obtained a Master in Information Technology degree from the PUP Graduate School. She recently defended her Doctor of Philosophy in Educational Management at St. Jude College. A highly experienced information technology academician for more than twenty years, an administrator, writer of more than 5 books on Information Technology.

Yeqing (Victor) Li is the International Executive Director of the Global Peace Youth, President of the Global Young Leaders Academy, and Executive Director of the International Young Leaders Assembly. He has directed premier leadership development programs in over 20 nations benefiting young leaders worldwide and has spoken at United Nations, World Bank, US Congress, State Department, leading think tanks and universities, etc. He is a former foreign investment consultant at IFC (World Bank Group) and holds an MBA from Georgetown University and BA from Peking University.

Dr. Ma. Junithesmer Rosales, D.Em., is dean of the College of Education and Professor at the Polytechnic University of the Philippines (PUP). She has been teaching for more than 20 years in the university and is also the editor-in-chief of Education Review, and associate Editor of Mabini Review, journals of PUP. She is a Research Fellow and International Visiting Professor of Royal Institute of Singapore; Member of the Scientific and Technical Committee and Editorial Review Board on Educational and Pedagogical Sciences, and Cognitive and Language Sciences in Connecticut, USA.

Royston Cabunag is the Program Director of SM Cares for Children and Youth. He heads the partnership of SM Cares with UNICEF that protects the welfare of children by providing access to clean drinking water and promoting access to essential nutrition and health services. SM Cares, through the Children and Youth Committee, is the co-organizer of Global Youth Summit, an annual gathering of student leaders all over the Philippines and from other countries. Mr. Cabunag is also the Assistant Vice President for Operations of SM Supermalls.

Ediola Pashollari is the Secretary General of the World Assembly of Youth (WAY) in Malaysia. She Holds Master’s degrees in Business Administration, Political Science, and Entrepreneurship. As the Secretary- General of WAY and the Director of the World Youth Institute, she has been instrumental in assisting and supporting various youth initiatives locally, regionally and internationally. Her desire is seeing that youth around the world be prepared to face current global challenges and educating them for achieving a sustainable future.

Hon. Maria Leonor Gerona Robredo is the Vice President of the Republic of the Philippines. A human rights lawyer Leni Robredo, emerged in the public eye with the loss of her husband, former Naga Mayor and Department of Interior and Local Government Secretary Jesse Robredo in 2012. She became the representative of the Third District of Camarines Sur in 2013 after she was persuaded to consider the political life. From one percent, her survey ratings climbed consistently. And on May 30, 2016, the Joint Houses of Congress proclaimed Leni Robredo as the 14th vice president of the Philippines.

Jinsoo Kim is the Regional Representative of Global Peace Foundation for Asia Pacific. He studied Philosophy and Comparative Religion from Sogang University. He also studied Business Administration and earned MBA from Hankook University of Foreign Studies. Mr. Kim worked with major international NGOs and business entities, as well as youth-related NGOs. Mr. Kim was previously the International President of Global Peace Youth Corps.
H.E. VINICIO CEREZO, former President of Guatemala, see Plenary section

YOUTH LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE

YOUTH ASSEMBLY NEW MODELS FOR PEACE

OLINDA SALGUERO is the Executive Director of the Esquipulas Foundation for Peace, Democracy, Development, and Integration. She is committed to issues including gender equality and eco-development, and is a member of the Ecological Foundation for Eco-development and Conservation. She is part of the Advisory Board of the Ibero-American Youth Organization, and Member of “Women Leaders of the Americas” Documentation Sciences Foundation (Spain). She represents Central America for the Global Peace Foundation, and co-directs the Latin American Presidential Mission.

ELIZABETH BAUTISTA is a Programs Officer for Makati Business Club (MBC), working on policy research, and trade and investment. She previously was Project Head of Grassroots Governance, a community-based initiative that provided civic education on basic government services for rural communities, a project of MBC. In 2015, she was a Philippine Delegate for the youth-based program APEC Voices of the Future, and is an alumni of the International Young Leaders Assembly.

RICHARD BUSINGE is a peace and development expert with experience in conflict prevention and peacebuilding in East Africa. He specializes in developing political, economic, and conflict analysis of private sector activity to design dialogue initiatives involving the youth, private sector, government, and conflict-affected communities. He advises and accompanies these stakeholders to advance joint conflict-sensitive development initiatives. Richard has designed and led initiatives specifically aimed at inclusive development strategies that build linkages between investors and local suppliers.

SHINTYA (TYA) RAHMI UTAMI is the General Manager for GPF Indonesia. She earned her Bachelor of Business Management from Telkom Institute of Management, and has devoted her career to community service and youth development. Tya has helped build the nation’s moral and innovative young leaders across the islands. She guides, and empowers youth to develop themselves and their community. Having participated in volunteer activities, Tya found her passion and happiness in life by living for greater good.

QANDEEL FATIMA SHAH is a youth and women’s rights activist in Pakistan and has represented Pakistan at leadership conferences discussing the role of women in public policy. She has chaired many Model UN committees, with crisis committees being her forte. Qandeel holds a degree in International Business Management and works at Bank Alfalah Limited, where she implements financial inclusion techniques. She is passionate about diplomatic dialogue as an important way of contributing to social and international issues.

NAAM DEO is the CEO of Sarvagya Foundation. As a passionate ambassador of global transformation, Naam Deo is a respected entrepreneur who connects with people at the grassroots level. He approaches social issues through innovative thinking and a holistic outlook, and ensures that his initiatives are aligned with what the Sarvagya Foundation believes in. By advocating for collaborative humanitarian efforts at the UN among other organizations, he has inspired those around him to contribute to the world to bring humanity together.

HON. JO KRISTINE REVIL, Vice Governor of the Province of Masbate, Philippines, see Women’s section
YOUTH ASSEMBLY NEW MODELS FOR DEVELOPMENT

JAMES POON currently serves as the Partnership Officer of Global Peace Youth International, the Youth division of the Global Peace Foundation, and the Co-Founder of the Chinese Federation for Global Peace. His passion is to promote peace and development through a moral and innovative leadership dynamic. He and his team have been engaged in creating impact programs including Power of 10 Sen, Global Peace Volunteer, United Generation (U-Gen), and the International Young Leaders Assembly.

RUPERT AMBIL is the Executive Director, Rappler MovePH. Mr. Ambil studied at UP Los Baños and UP Diliman. He began his career in the broadcast industry at the Philippines’ first 24-hour news channel Sarimanok News Network, now ANC or the ABS-CBN News Channel. As Executive Director of MovePH, he supervises major information awareness campaigns like the Football for Peace program with the Philippine Marines, Agos-eBayanihan with the Office of Civil Defense, and NotOnMyWatch with the British Embassy. In 2015, he also headed the creation of a nationwide network of citizen journalists for Rappler.

SANGBACK LEE is the Assistant Country Director of KOICA (Korea International Agency) Philippine office. He is responsible for the community development and is in charge of Korea Overseas Volunteer programs in the Philippines. Since he joined KOICA in 2006, he has been appointed as the Country Director of KOICA Palestine office from 2011-2013 and the Deputy Director of Strategy and Planning Team and Innovative Partnership Team from 2014-2016. He studied political science and diplomacy at the Chung-Ang University and holds a Masters degree in NGO Studies in Kyung-Hee University in Korea.

JOHNNY ASIN is an Officer on Special Duty at the rank of Deputy Secretary to the government of Nagaland in India. He is the head of the division in the Nagaland State Disaster Management Authority, Home Department. He has worked with UNDP as Project Officer in the Disaster Management Division in the previous assignment providing technical support in the implementation of Disaster Risk Reduction program. He holds a Master’s in Social Work from Loyola College, Chennai, India.

HON. KATHERINE AGAPAY is the Vice Governor of the Province of Laguna. She was awarded as Champion for the Local Climate Change Action Plan for the province’s efforts in the development and implementation of climate change policies. She was previously the Sangguniang Kabataan Federation President of San Pablo City, Laguna. She contributes to local newspapers and co-hosts several local cable TV programs, focusing primarily on women’s rights, environment and local tourism. In 2011, she was elected Vice President of the Integrated Bar of the Philippines Laguna Chapter.

DR. EDGARDO RODRIGUEZ is the President of Enderun Colleges and the Dean of the College of Business, Technology and Entrepreneurship. He worked in the World Bank in Washington, D.C., as head of the bank’s Corporate Budget Unit and as a management specialist at the Asian Development Bank. He also taught for fourteen years in the United States, as associate professor at the Graduate School of Industrial Engineering of Rutgers University in New Jersey; as adjunct professor of Management and Information Sciences at the American University in Washington, D.C., and at Virginia Polytechnic Institute in Virginia.

YOUTH ASSEMBLY CALL TO ACTION

NICHOLAS LEE CHEE KUAN is the Director of Youth Development at GPF Thailand. He is a visionary leader and has served in several international youth organizations. He actively encourages youth to participate in service, peace, and development, and founded the Asian Youth Exchange to create regional peace and collaboration among youth in Asia. He was appointed as a Global Ambassador of the Global Young Leaders Academy and as the Secretary-General for the Asia Pacific Peace Service Alliance in 2014.
YOUTH LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE

SOEKMAWATI is the Program Officer of the World Assembly of Youth and holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Business Administration. She works in liaison with the other departments and directs events and programs organized by the WAY Secretariat and member organizations. She recruits participants, speakers and volunteers, and guides the development of new programs, goals and initiatives. As a youth activist herself, she is passionate about emerging issues that directly and indirectly affect the achievement of Environmental Sustainability.

YOUTH IBM LEADERSHIP TRAINING

PETER MOSTACHETTI is a 20-year IBM veteran specializing in engagement, feedback, managing dilemmas, fostering collaboration, transformational leadership, and the neuroscience behind leadership. He has experience engaging audiences in the U.S., South America, Europe, Asia, and the Middle East. As a New York State Licensed Master social worker, has always been committed to mentoring, coaching, leading teams, helping people find their hidden strengths and values. Peter is an accomplished actor having performed in and around the Hudson Valley, and Off-Broadway.

Diane Melley, Vice President, Global Citizenship Initiatives in IBM, see Plenary section

SERVICE GLOBAL SERVICE FORUM

DR. MARCO RONCARATI is Social Affairs Officer of the Social Development Division of the United Nations Economic Social Council for Asia and the Pacific (UN ESCAP). He holds five degrees from the University of London, covering anthropology, business, development studies, economics, psychology and sociology. He has spent almost half of his life in East Asia and with knowledge of Chinese, Indonesian, Lao and Thai, has lectured at various international universities. Since 2005 he has been in Bangkok working at United Nations ESCAP as the focal point on youth and dealing with socio-economic issues.

PRAMOD SHARMA is President of Yuvakta-an, an NGO working internationally for peace, volunteering and global citizenship through annual International Youth Peace Fests, Peace Clubs in Schools/Colleges and regular youth exchange programs. He has also edited two books on the theme of ‘Millennium without Violence’ and ‘Need for Afro-Asian Dialogue’. Pramod received his Masters and later M. Phil. from Department of Gandhian and Peace Studies, Panjab University, Chandigarh, India and is having a soul satisfying experience of 29 years of active volunteer work.

DAVID CAPARARA, Vice President of Strategic Partnerships, Global Peace Foundation, see Plenary section

DIANE MELLEY, Vice President, Global Citizenship Initiatives in IBM, see Plenary section

AMB. YOUNG-MOK KIM, Former President of Korea International Cooperation Agency, See Economic Forum section

SERVICE SESSION 1: PUBLIC PRIVATE PARTNERSHIP IN COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

MARIO DERIQUITO is the Vice President of SM Foundation and Former Undersecretary of the Department of Education for External Linkages. He has participated in the International Visitor Program of the US State Department in 2000 and was part of the pilot class of Bridging Leadership Training Program of the Asian Institute of Management. A former senior director from the private sector, Deriquito contributed to DepEd his experience by conceptualizing education initiatives such as the TEN Moves campaign, to raise funds for classrooms in public schools.
YOUTH LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE

SERVICE SESSION 2: ENGAGING CSR AND EMPLOYEE SKILL-BASED VOLUNTEERING WITH COMMUNITY-BASED DEVELOPMENT

Emelita Apostol-Alvarez is the Vice President of Rotary Philippines (Makati EDSA) and the Chairperson and President of the Congressional Spouses Foundation that initiated the livelihood project with the inmates of Bureau of Jail Management and Penology and their family members. She is also a former President of the Philippine Chamber of Commerce and Industry – Makati. Apostol-Alvarez had a vital role in the implementation of Republic Act 9003 in the province of Davao Del Norte to become a Zero Waste and outstanding municipality in the whole Mindanao area.

Ding Cheihu is National Representative for China of the International Association for Volunteer Effort, an organization that serves as a global voice for volunteering. He is also a Board Member of the International Youth Camp, Executive Director, Beijing Volk Social Work Institute, Director of Beijing Youth Cultural Exchanges Center, Deputy Secretary-General of the Peking Opera Children’s Education Society. He has also previously served as Director of Project Management for the Olympic Youth Camp of BOCOG, Director of Project Management for the China Story of BOCOG and board member of the China Airports Magazine.

Parmod Sharma, President, Yuvsatta-an, see above listing

Arlita Tayko-Narag has been working in the CSR field for the past 17 years, as former Corporate Affairs Manager at Intel Corporation and now as Head of Corporate Citizenship at Samsung Electronics Philippines. Arlita holds Masters Degrees in Political Science and in International Relations from UP Diliman and from the Australian National University. She also serves on the International Advisory Council of the International Conference on Education, Research and Innovation.

Emmanuel Bienvenido Marquez, Jr. is the Executive Director of Hands On Manila. He is a community organizer and researcher who has served in Nueva Ecija province for seven years helping out the marginalized sector, like farmers and women groups and later became part of Diocesan Formation Center in the Diocese of San Jose. Mr. Marquez also works with Service For Peace in the Philippines and supports the community development component of Global Peace Foundation’s All-Lights Village program in the Philippines.

Eugene Ho is Head of Corporate Affairs and a Senior Executive Team member in SAP Southeast Asia. He oversees corporate affairs, corporate social responsibility (CSR) and partnerships with ASEAN, United Nations, and World Economic Forum for SAP SEA. A multi-disciplinary professional, he has experience in senior executive support, supervising sales support, driving customer events, managing information systems, managing analyst and media relations. He has an MBA from the University of Strathclyde and is a respected speaker on CSR, having spoken at various conferences.

Jung-Hyun Kwon is the Senior Vice President of Creating Shared Value of CJ Corporation in Seoul, Korea. His role is to create a sustainable future for CJ Group by driving and integrating CSV and CSR efforts. He oversees CJ’s social and business innovation. He holds an MBA from Kellogg School of Management and a BA in Business from Seoul National University. Mr. Kwon speaks and writes extensively in Korea and internationally on large corporations’ social responsibilities.
YOUTH LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE

SERVICE SESSION 3: DISASTER RISK REDUCTION AND YOUTH CAPACITY BUILDING: PHILIPPINES AND RISE NEPAL CASE STUDIES

Felino “Jun” Palafox Jr. is the Founder and Principal Architect-Urban Planner of Palafox Associates and the President of Palafox Architecture Group. He has led and managed both firms in planning more than 17 billion square meters of land and the architecture of over 12 million square meters of building floor area in 39 countries. Mr. Palafox has lectured in Harvard University, MIT, and in 18 other countries in Asia, Europe, and North America. His extensive travels took him to 2,000 cities in 67 countries.

Donna May Lina is the President of Lina Group of Companies. Donna has a wide experience in various aspects of communication and media production. Currently, she is also the Executive Producer for the People’s Television Network’s weather program, Panahon TV. Among her notable productions are the bio-musical Ageless Passion, Aliw Award Winner for Best Stage Collaboration Manila Symphony Orchestra’s Rockesta, Gawad Urian Best Film for 2001 Batang West Side. She has produced television programs on Solar Sports, QTV, Zoe TV 11 and NBN.

Usec. Ricardo Jalad is the Chief of the Office of Civil Defense and the Executive Director of the National Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Council. He is a retired Army general and former acting commander of the 5th Infantry Division, which covers northeastern Luzon. Prior to that post, Usec. Jalad was the Army’s commander of the 2nd Mechanized Infantry Brigade, which covers the areas of Iligan City and Lanao del Norte. The Council utilizes the UN Cluster Approach in disaster management. It is the country’s focal for the ASEAN Agreement on Disaster Management and Emergency Response and many other related international commitments.

Ram Rohan Panta is President of Global Peace Foundation Nepal, building partnerships and implementing values-based approaches to development and peace. He is a social, youth, environment and tech activist. He plays an active leadership role in NGOs working in children’s education, youth’s right and peace building. He is member of the Institution of Engineering and Technology.

Upesh Kumar Shrestha is a youth leader, project manager and board member of Service For Peace Nepal. Mr. Upesh began his peace building work as a volunteer for Orphan Children Center, and has supported library access in rural Nepal, women’s empowerment, and leadership and volunteer development. He now is working for earthquake recovery as with the Nepal government and Korea government, Korea International Cooperation Agency, and other organizations.

SERVICE SESSION 4: ENVIRONMENTAL INITIATIVES

Subramanya K. Kusnur is the Founder, Chairman and CEO of AQUAKRAFT PROJECTS PVT LTD, a Next Generation for profit social enterprise group focused on providing clean drinking water and sanitation. His passion for creating easily manageable and sustainable solutions for drinking water and sanitation took him to over 1000 villages from North East to the South of India to understand the issues plaguing the rural populace. His innovative ideas led to models like aquam, automated toilets that are being introduced in rural regions.

Shrijana Sitiikhu is experienced environmental educator and campaigner committed to clean water and building peace and social cohesion through nature conservation and youth empowerment. She has a Master degree in Environment science and is a lecturer at Khwopa College.

Recognizing her leadership and work for environment conservation and service, she was awarded with National Environment Award 2013 among youth for contribution on environment conservation. She is MASHAV graduate from Israel.
YOUTH LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE

SERVICE SESSION 5: ALL LIGHTS VILLAGES AND SDG RESEARCH TUTORIAL: IMPACT EVALUATION BASELINE TOOLS

BAYARTSETSEG ALTANGEREL is an actress, known for Marco Polo TV series. She is also Miss Mongolia who represented her native country in Miss International 2014 in Tokyo, Japan and Miss Earth 2015 in Vienna, Austria where she became one of the finalists and Best Speech Award winner. She attains historic success for Mongolia at Miss World 2016, which was held in Washington D.C., becoming one of the Top 11 contestants of the event with winning the People’s Choice Award and Miss Talent Award. Bayartsetseg is an environmental activist who has been actively working for My Club eco community for the last nine years, which has planted over 200,000 trees with the help of its 3000 members to combat desertification in Mongolia.

GRACE AGUILING-DALISAY is the Dean of the College of Social Sciences and Philosophy of University of the Philippines-Diliman. Prof. Aguling-Dalisay has spent the past 35 years in the joint worlds of the academia and civil society. Early in her career, alongside teaching and research, Prof. Aguling-Dalisay served as a volunteer psychologist for a national organization devoted to the rehabilitation of children in difficult political circumstances and armed conflict. She was Research Director for a television show on children’s development and was actively involved in youth-based service programs.

LEONIDA BAYANI-ORTIZ is a civic leader, humanitarian and women’s rights advocate. She is a governor of the Philippine National Red Cross; former Governor of the Lions Clubs of the International District 301-A1, former President of the All Nations Women’s Group; former director of the Quezon City Chamber of Commerce and Industry; and former secretary of the National Council of Women of the Philippines. She is the recipient of numerous awards for her service and civic leadership.

DR. KYUNG-EUI DAVID YOO is President of Love in Lights, a Korea-based non-profit effort to provide solar lights to emerging nations as the beginning of sustainable development and self-reliance. Dr. Eui is also founder and vice-president of Apply Bank, served as a member of the Special Project Bureau of FIFA, co-standing representative of the Korea NGO Association, Director of J.W. Marriott Hotel in Korea, and President of the International Boxing Federation Asia. He holds a Master of Business Administration from Columbia University.

MASSIMO TROMBIN since 2011 is the CEO of the Brazilian Chapter of the Global Peace Foundation. He has been responsible for the development and implementation of hundreds of projects in over 60 countries around the world, including relief efforts in Croatia and Bosnia-Herzegovina during the Balkans conflicts, the rehabilitation of rebels in Uganda, youth and service development in the Philippines, and social entrepreneurship programs in Brazil and Paraguay. Mr. Trombin has also developed numerous presentations and training manuals for schools and community organizations on the value of volunteerism, service work and development.

SERVICE CONCLUDING SESSION

LEONARD FAUSTINO is the President of the Global Peace Youth Philippines and Youth Co-Chair of the Asia Pacific Peace and Development Service Alliance. He leads series of Global Peace Youth Exchange in various underdeveloped communities in the Philippines with volunteers coming from Korea, Japan, USA, Brazil, Panama, Mongolia and Taiwan. He is one of the speakers during the Youth and Service Forum at the World Bank Headquarters in Washington DC and served as moderator for the high level youth session of the International Young Leaders Assembly at the General Assembly Hall of the United Nations in New York. He was awarded as one of the outstanding student of Young Men Christian Association.

AMB. YOUNG-MOK KIM, Former President of Korea International Cooperation Agency, See Economic Forum section

PARMOD SHARMA, President, Yuvsatta-an, see above listing
YOUTH LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE

INGILL RA is Co-chair of the Asia-Pacific Peace and Development Service Alliance. He holds four degrees from Korea and U.S. in fields of theology, education, social welfare and has worked with various international institutes including Federation International Football Association, Asian Football Confederation, and United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization. He travels widely in his capacity as the regional partnership coordinator for North Africa, Middle East and South Asia for the Global Peace Foundation.

MASSIMO TROMBIN, CEO, Global Peace Foundation

Brazil, see above listing

DR. MARCO RONCARATI, Social Affairs Officer, Social Development Division, UN ESCAP, see above listing

QANDEEL FATIMA SHAH, Youth and Women’s Rights Activist, see above listing

GLOBAL YOUTH SUMMIT SPEAKERS

ANNE CURTIS-SMITH is the UNICEF Philippines Celebrity Advocate for Children. Anne Curtis officially joined UNICEF as a Celebrity Advocate for Children in November 2014 after having been a staunch supporter and donor since 2009. As a UNICEF Celebrity Advocate for Children, Anne will focus on promoting Early Childhood Care & Development. She will also help in mobilizing support and resources for the most vulnerable children and families, those living in abject poverty, are affected by violence, abuse, exploitation, and particularly in emergency and conflict situations.

FRANCES VERONICA “VERNICE” VICTORIO is the Commissioner for Climate Change. She’s the Head of the Philippine Delegation to the 22nd Conference of Parties to the UN Climate Change Conference in Marrakech, Morocco. The Climate Change Commission is the lead policy-making body of the government tasked to coordinate, monitor and evaluate government programs and ensure mainstreaming of change in national, local, and sectoral development plans towards a climate-resilient and climate-smart Philippines.

KAREN DAVILA is a Young Global Leader of the World Economic Forum, a UNICEF Child Rights Award grand prize winner, and an award-winning broadcast journalist and producer. Currently, she is the host of ABS-CBN News Channel’s Headstart with Karen Davila and the anchor of ABS-CBN’s late-night newscast Bandila. She is also the host of current affairs show My Puhunan and radio anchor on DZMM’s Pasada Sais Trenta with Vic Lima. Davila has also won numerous awards both locally and internationally.

AIZA SEGUEIRA is the Chairperson and CEO of National Youth Commission (NYC) and a multi-awarded Filipino actor and singer-songwriter. As the Chairperson of NYC, Usec. Aiza Seguerra leads the regional consultations and formulation of the Philippine Youth Development Plan 2017-2022. The National Youth Commission is a national agency that specifically addresses issues surrounding the youth as the sole policy-making body for youth affairs including youth employment and entrepreneurship opportunities, and role in economic growth.

KC CONCEPCION is a National Ambassador Against Hunger of the World Food Programme. Since being appointed in 2008, Ms. Concepcion promotes fundraising and visibility for WFP programs throughout the world. She has visited operations in Nepal, organized fundraisers following Typhoon Haiyan in November 2013 and the Nepal Earthquake in 2015. She is also an award-winning actress, popular television host, and singer. She has served as an MTV Asia VJ & TV Host for X-Factor Philippines, played lead roles in local Philippine movies, television series and variety shows, and recorded two albums.

DR. HYUN JIN P. MOON, Founder and Chairman, Global Peace Foundation, see Plenary session
YOUTH LEadership and SERVICE MODERATORS

Dr. Suthey Teh is CEO of Global Peace Foundation Malaysia. He is a medical professional turned social leader, with a passion for changing the world. He left his medical career in 2001 to volunteer in social organizations working on youth empowerment and peace-building. He is a leadership coach and intercultural expert with 15 years of experience working with youth across the Asia Pacific. He recently spoke at United Nations Headquarters in New York, addressing over a thousand youths on “Moral leadership for a peaceful world.”

Corey Griffin is former Associate Director for US Peace Corps. In his role, Mr. Griffin was responsible for developing and executing the agency partnership strategy to support its mission and the work of its volunteers around the world. The Office of Strategic Partnerships includes the gifts and grants management, inter-governmental affairs, and university collaborations and partnerships. He is also worked in providing leadership to the Peace Corps’ effort to support the Administration’s expansion of national service and volunteerism.

Dr. Markandey Rai is senior advisor of UN-HABITAT, chairperson of the Joint Advisory Committee and member of GPF’s Global Leadership Council. He has served UN-HABITAT in various roles for 22 years and elected President of the Nairobi Staff Union 2000-2003. He holds a Ph.D. in Statistics and has taught in various universities. In 2006 and 2014 he was awarded with Hind Rattan Award and Humanity Achievers Award respectively. He has published his several academic and scientific papers.

Dr. Nilufar Choudry is the Senior Development Specialist at Global Peace Foundation. She supports GPF’s global strategy on partnership and program development, with specific focus on resource development. She previously served as Director of Research and Executive Office at Meridian International Center, Director of Development at Center of Concern, Research Fellow at the Bangladesh Institute of International and Strategic Studies, and Assistant Professor at the University of Dhaka. She received her PhD in Political Science from Carleton University, Ottawa, Canada.

Kimberly Molitas is the Spokesperson and Chief of the Public Information Office of the National Capital Region Police Office in the Philippines. She has worked with the Philippine National Police for 17 years in various capacities, and has also served abroad with the United Nations’ Stabilization Mission in Haiti. Molitas completed the Humphrey Fellowship on Public Policy Analysis & Public Administration. She has also received the Outstanding Policewomen of the Philippines and Distinguished Service Medal award. Her goal is to empower women police around Asia.

Dr. Charles Phillips, Ph.D. serves in senior leadership roles for several global non-profit organizations that drive development of individuals and communities through the shared experience of voluntary service. He is also a university professor whose courses build leadership skills in community-based service learning methods and non-profit management. As President of Service For Peace (SFP), Charles leads the strategic development of service abroad programs designed with universities designated as SFP’s partners in community development.

Nicholas Lee, Director of Youth Development at GPF Thailand, see listing above
WOMEN’S LEADERSHIP SESSION 1: TRANSFORMATIVE LEADERSHIP TOWARDS A BETTER FUTURE

Dr. Nona Ricafort has served as President of the ASEAN Confederation of Women’s Organizations and International Council of Women. In the Philippines, she served in key positions of the National Council of Women of the Philippines, Philippine Federation of Business and Professional Women, and Zonta. She served for 14 years in the TESDA Board, Philippine Commission on Women, and Governor of the National Book Development Board. For 8 years, she was Deputy Minister of Higher Education, Chairman of 54 State Universities Board of Regents, a Philippine UNESCO Commissioner, and Asia Pacific UNESCO Education Director.

Hon. Jo Kristine Revil is the Vice Governor of the Province of Masbate, Philippines. She holds a degree in Tourism at the University of the Philippines and received her Juris Doctor at the Ateneo De Manila University School of Law. She also had an Executive Education at the Asian Institute of Management on Designing Sustainable Tourism and Strategic Legislative Management for Vice Governors. Recently, she finished her executive education at the Harvard University Kennedy School of Government. Kaye Revil is the current National President of the Lady Local Legislators’ League of the Philippines.

Hon. Yunsook Lee is currently the President of the Korean Association of Community Education and President of the Korean Federation of Resident Autonomy Councils. She is a board member of the Korean Association of University Women and the Seoul Women’s Foundation. She formerly served as a cabinet member for the Minister of Political Affairs II (Women’s Affairs), and was a member of the 16th National Assembly, and a governor for District 26 in Zonta International. She graduated from the College of Education at Ewha Woman’s University in South Korea.

Hon. Linabelle Ruth Villarica is now on her third term as Congresswoman representing the 4th District of Bulacan. Currently she chairs the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, is on her second term as President of the Central Luzon Bloc, and stepped up from Vice-President to President of the Association of Women Legislators Foundation. Among the major programs she facilitated with national government agencies are the construction of a Flood Control and Drainage Improvement Project for Obando, Meycauayan and Marilao; the widening of Meycauayan City’s major road artery; and the construction of various classrooms, multi-purpose halls, health and day care centers and roads.

Dr. Raquel Figueiredo Alessandri Teixeira is the Goiás Secretary of State for Education, Culture and Sport. She earned her PhD in Linguistics from the University of California and her post-doctorate in Language and Culture from the School of High Studies in Paris. She is a teaching and research professor at the Federal University of Goiás. She formerly served as a Federal Congresswoman. In recent years, she has been the executive director of the Jaime Câmara Foundation and the director-president of the Jaime Câmara Institute, where she is working to support and encourage health and education.

Dr. Preciosa S. Soliven is the founder and Chief Executive Officer of Operation Brotherhood Montessori Center, Inc, the largest Montessori school in the world. She was appointed by President Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo in 2001 as the Secretary-General of the UNESCO National Commission of the Philippines with the official title of Ambassador. Formerly the Philippine representative to the UNESCO Paris Executive Board in 1986-1987, she became an active member of the Education Committee of UNESCO Philippines from 1990 to 2001.
WOMEN’S LEADERSHIP SESSION 2:
INFLUENTIAL WOMEN IN LEADERSHIP

Dr. Junsook Moon is Co-founder of the Global Peace Foundation and Chair of Global Peace Women, the women’s division of the Global Peace Foundation. A Juilliard-trained pianist, Dr. Moon serves on the Executive Board of Service for Peace. She also advances humanitarian relief efforts through the North Korean Housing and Furnace Relief Project, the Multicultural Family Support Center in Seoul, and other international relief projects. She is married to Dr. Hyun Jin Preston Moon and the proud mother of nine children.

H.E. Hajiya Amina Namadi Sambo is a successful business leader and founder of the NGO “I Care–Women and Youth Initiative,” helping develop IT skills, finance startup businesses, deliver health care, and build HIV/AIDS awareness. Her projects have included sanitation, distribution of insecticide treated nets to families, and support for education of girls and protection of women from violence.

Dr. Eva Latham is CEO of the Institute of Contemporary Scientific Studies and President of Human Rights Teaching International. She is a social scientist and consultant to government and organizations. She studied in the Netherlands and obtained her PhD in Germany. She was Secretary General of the Dutch Council of Women and received recognition from UNESCO for her method to teach Human Rights to different professional groups. She has written articles and research papers on (migration) policy issues and two books on organizational culture, human rights and human dignity.

Cynthia Aguilar Villar was Chairman of Committee on Higher and Technical Education during the 13th and 14th Congress. Ms. Villar’s social and civic concerns are wide and varied. In 1992, she founded and chaired the Villar Foundation, of which programs include providing assistance to OFWs, environment protection and livelihood projects. She earned her degree in Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the University of the Philippines, which recognized her as one of its Distinguished Alumni in 2004. She completed her Masters in Business Administration at New York University. She was a financial analyst and college professor and married former House Speaker and Senate President Manny Villar in 1975.

Dr. Nona Ricafort see listing above

WOMEN’S LEADERSHIP SESSION 3: BEST PRACTICES AND MODELS

Bambie Panta is the Global Peace Women Representative in Nepal and the Program Director of Global Peace Foundation Nepal. Since 2012, she works in uplifting the value of women through family values education and awareness programs. Mrs. Panta also trains youth and teachers of moral and innovative leadership.

Mihwa Kim is currently the President of Global Peace Women Korea, and President of Global Peace Future Women Leadership Forum. She is a board member of the National SafeNet for Children and Women, and Co-President of the Kangnam Unification Forum.

Sarantuya Dagvasuren is an operation manager of GPF Mongolia since 2013. She is also the leader of GPW Mongolia. She has been organizing trainings to increase women’s household income, empower women on the prevention of gender-based violence and creating a network of women leaders throughout Mongolia.
Caroline Aluoch Odera, is a renowned peace advocate, educator and defender of women’s rights in the Republic of Kenya. In 1999, she founded St. Thaddeus Child Care Society, an organization whose mission is to empower women, youth and children. She is also the founder and director of St. Thaddeus Schools, a project that empowers orphaned and/or disadvantaged children in urban informal settlements in Kenya to access their right to education. Caroline sits on the government of Kenya’s Peace Committee in Embakasi Sub-county. The committee is mandated with promoting peace and national cohesion at sub-county level.

Keiko Kobayashi is Chair, NPO JUN AI World Peace Foundation and Executive Producer, Script Writer, Lead Actress of Japan-China collaborative film JUN AI. She initiated the JUN AI Project based on a vision for peace, and produced the JUN AI film as a social art project for eight years. She has conducted film screenings and exchange programs for 10 years to create a culture of peace in Japan as well as other countries. Her sincere and unchanging spirit with unconditional love has awakened the hearts of many people with whom she has created a human bond around the world through the film.

Dr. Nona Ricafort (see page 11 for bio)

WOMEN’S LEADERSHIP SESSION 4: WOMEN LEADERS’ SUMMIT: BUILDING A NETWORK FOR PEACE AND DEVELOPMENT

Donna Schuller is a certified nutritional coach specializing in body, mind, soul health and family dynamics. She is an author of three books. She currently writes short inspirational, antidotal stories which can be read on her website: www.healthyfamilyhappylife.org

Donna is a sports enthusiast and holds a second-degree black belt in TaeKwonDo. Married to Robert A. Schuller for 32 years, she appeared with him on international television up until 2008. She has four grown children and five grandchildren.

Dr. Soonok Kang is Secretary General of Global Peace Women and Vice President of Global Peace Foundation. Additionally, she serves as a board member of a leading service organization in Korea, Service For Peace. She has also taught at Dongguk University, Korea. Dr. Kang believes service and education to be the two most valuable vehicles for development of the individual and society, which leads to her passion for supporting GPW chapters and developing women leadership programs. Dr. Kang earned her degree in Doctor of Philosophy and Master of Art in International Education from Steinhardt School of Education, New York University.

Dr. Nona Ricafort see listing above

Pamela C. de Guzman is national treasurer of Inner Wheel of the Philippines Foundation. She was recipient of an Outstanding Manager Award wherein she was the First to attain the Billionaires Circle in her area. Ms. Guzman served as President of the Inner Wheel Club of Marikina from 2013-2015 for a two-year term. She earned her degree of Bachelor of Arts, Major in Political Science in University of Baguio and is now working with the biggest universal bank, Metrobank. She is married to a Marikenian, Efren O. de Guzman.

Dr. Soonok Kang see listing above

Dr. Junsook Moon see listing above

WOMEN’S LEADERSHIP SESSION 5: CULTURAL PEACEBUILDING: JUN AI WORLD PEACE FOUNDATION MOVIE SCREENING AND DISCUSSION

Keiko Kobayashi see listing above

Rachel Murray see listing above
Patty Howell is President of Healthy Relationships California/Healthy Relationships International, and President of World Class Relationships LLC. She is co-author of World Class Marriage and Impact Report: Research on the Impact of Relationship and Marriage Education Programs in California. She has developed many curricula, including the World Class Relationships family of programs. She has taught relationship skills programs to participants and trained instructors in 14 countries. She is the recipient of the Smart Marriages Impact Award, and has been made an honorary citizen of Wuhan, China, for her work in creating the Sino-American Friendship Garden in Wuhan.

Dr. Minda Javier Pama is a Director of the All Nation Women’s Group and Global Peace Women Philippines. A teacher by profession, she has had a vast experience in the secondary level of education. In her 42 years as a classroom teacher, she spent 39 years in the International School System, both in the Philippines and abroad. She taught English, Literature, Speech and Communication Arts following the International Baccalaureate (IB) system of education and curriculum. She finally retired from Brent International School Manila after a very fulfilling stint in the field of academe.

Rachel Murray is a nationally known speaker addressing issues impacting women, children, and the family. Rachel serves as the USA Director of the Global Peace Women and Advisor to GPW International. In addition, she is the First Lady and Director of Music of the Lighthouse Church and has served for more than 15 years in the legal field. Rachel holds an MBA and BS in Business Management from Liberty University and a BS in Paralegal Studies from the University of Maryland.

Atty. Rita Linda V. Jimeno is the Associate Dean of the Centro Escolar University School of Law where she teaches Civil Law subjects, Alternative Dispute Resolution and Thesis Writing. She is also a Professorial Lecturer of the Philippine Judicial Academy and a practicing litigation lawyer for 30 years. Concurrently, she is the Managing Partner of Jimeno Cope & David Law Offices; a columnist of Manila Standard Today and Good Housekeeping Magazine.

Kathy Velayo Yulo manages businesses in the field of exhibit and convention organizing as well as contracting. Prior to being a business owner/manager she worked in management consulting, sales and convention management. She was Center Manager, Philippines for the Commission on Graduates of Foreign Nursing Schools (CGFNS) which is based in Philadelphia, USA for 15 years. She also served as president of the Association of International College Women and the American Women’s Club of the Philippines and the board of the Muntinlupa Development Foundation – a community development foundation formed in 1976.

Monica Villar Chipeco is the Director of Global Peace Women Philippines. She is the President and Managing Director of Wing On International Tours and Travel Corporation, and the Vice President of the Mareco Broadcasting Corporation 105.1 Crossover. She earned her Master of Business Administration-Tourism at Eulogio Amang Rodriguez Institute of Science and Technology. She is also an active member of the Catholic Women’s League, Zonta Club of Greater Rizal, Inner Wheel Club of Central Ortigas, and All Nations Women’s Group.
BUSINESS FORUM OPENING KEYNOTE

Hon. Arthur C. Yap is a member of the House of Representatives of the Philippines representing the 3rd District of Bohol. He chairs the Economic Committee of the Congress. Before becoming Secretary of the Department of Agriculture, he was the Administrator of the National Food Authority from 2002-2004. He was President & CEO of the Philippine International Trading Corporation in 2001. Graduated from the Ateneo de Manila University, Juris Doctor, and practiced law for several years.

BUSINESS SESSION 1: ENTREPRENEURSHIP: KEY TO SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY REDUCTION

Olivia Limpe-Aw is the president of the country's industry association, the Distilled Spirit Association of the Philippines, and the publisher/president of Foresight Book Publishing and Distributing Company. She has published several books and magazine titles such as Asian Dragon magazine, the first bilingual business and lifestyle magazine in the Philippines. Ms. Olivia Limpe-Aw is the President of Destileria Limtuaco & Co., Inc., the oldest distillery in the Philippines, the country's top exporter of distilled spirits and quality leader in the Philippine liquor industry.

Johnlu Koa is the founder and CEO of The French Baker in the Philippines. A self-taught baker who ventured into French Baking in 1989 he established “The French Baker” brand in Manila. Today, French Baker enjoys the dominant market share when it comes to the French Bakery-café category for over 25 years. Johnlu was a recipient of the “Outstanding Young Filipinos” in 1996 and was named one of the 500 Great Asians of the 21st Century. He co-founded the Philippine Baking Industry Group, the LARTIZAN Corporation, TEABROS Corporation and QWIKBREAD Corporation.

BUSINESS SESSION 2: THE TOURISM RESOURCE

Aileen Clemente is currently the Chairman and President of Rajah Travel Corporation. With 20 years of industry experience, Ms. Aileen Clemente is currently engaged in several businesses and supports several advocacies. She is a recipient of the first Global Peace Awards for Empowered Women in Tourism accorded by the International Institute for Peace through Tourism-India in partnership with UNWTO in 2016, the SKAL-Makati Travel Agency personality of the Year in 2015, and Amadeus Leaders Awards in 2012.

Jeffrey Ng is currently the President of Cathay Metal Corporation (Steel Manufacturing), Cathay Land, Inc., (Developer of South Forbes Golf City), and the Astoria Hotel Group. Mr. Ng has been actively involved as officer in several civic organizations to including the Federation of Filipino-Chinese Chamber of Commerce and Industry, Inc., Young Presidents Organization, and Rotary Club of Manila Bay. He is the Founding Chairman of Philnext, Inc. and the founding Executive Vice President, past President, immediate past Chairman and Board Member of Anvil Business Club.

Amb. Iyorwuese Hagher is President of the African Leadership Institute USA. He has served as Nigeria’s High Commissioner to Canada, Ambassador to Mexico and other Central American countries, Member of Senate, and Member of the 1994-95 Constitutional Conference. He was awarded for his role in peace building among warring ethnic groups of central Nigeria in 2003. Ambassador Hagher is also Professor of Theater for Development and former Chairman of the Theater and Communications Department of the University of Jos. A prolific writer, playwright and poet, he is a leading contemporary thinker on the transformational potential of leadership, education and art, and the use of cultural diplomacy for global peace.
BUSINESS SESSION 3: TRADE AND INVESTMENT AS A CATALYST FOR PEACE AND REGIONAL STABILITY

Dr. Ceferino S. Rodolfo is currently the Undersecretary for the Industry Development Group (IDG) of the Department of Trade and Industry and Vice Chairman and Managing Head of the Board of Investment. From 2000-2010, Dr. Rodolfo served as the Senior Policy Adviser for the Industry Development and Trade Policy Group of the Department of Trade and Industry. Since 2013 as IDG Assistant Secretary, he has provided key support in authorizing the country’s international trade strategy, and in coming up with the Philippine Trade Negotiations Agenda.

Governor Abdusakur Mahail Tan is President/Chairman and CEO of AMT Group of Companies with interests in petroleum and shipping, among others. Governor Tan served as Congressman for the 1st District of Sulu and thereafter as Governor and Vice Governor of the same province. He united the heirs to the Sulu Sultanate and on November 29, 2016, he was granted authority to represent the five Sultans in all matters and concerns relative to the Sultanate and was conferred the Royal Rank of Datu Shahbandar and appointed Special Envoy of the Council.

Dr. Huiyao Wang is CEO, Center for China and Globalization and Chairman of Chinese Abroad Chamber of Commerce and founder and president of the Center for China and Globalization (CCG), a top social think tank in China, and Director of CCG’s “One Belt One Road” research Institute. He serves as vice-chairman of the China Association for International Economic Cooperation; the Association of the Ministry of Commerce; and the China Western (Overseas) Returned Scholars Association. He was a senior fellow at Harvard Kennedy School and has published over 50 books and numerous articles on China and globalization.

BUSINESS SESSION 4: INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS SUCCESS AND CULTURAL COMPETENCIES

Dr. Jikyeong Kang is the President, CEO, Dean, MVP Professor of Marketing, Asian Institute of Management. Dr. Kang was the Director of the DBA program at Manchester Business School from 2010 to 2014. At MBS, she also served as Director of the Postgraduate Centre in charge of MBS’ MBA Programs from 2001-2007. Whilst she was in charge of the MBA Program, MBS became one of the first schools in the world to earn triple accreditation. Dr. Kang earned her PhD from the University of Minnesota, Master’s degree from Colorado State University, and a bachelor’s degree from Hanyang University, Seoul, Korea.

Hideo Kawabata is CEO of FUJI SUISO KANSHA, a leading company in hydrogen supplement products in Japan. FUJI SUISO is a bestselling hydrogen supplement and has helped many people to become free of disease, pain and, thus, gain happier lives. Mr. Kawabata developed the business with the vision to improve people’s health and reduce medical expenses, and many prominent professional athletes, models and actors use the FUJI SUISO supplements.
BUSINESS MODERATORS

Robert Bleu is President of True World Group, employing 1,500 people in seven countries and the largest fresh fish distributor in the U.S. Mr. Blue is the Co-Chair for Manufacturing while serving on the Executive Committee of the Association of Washington Businesses and the Washington Chamber of Commerce and Manufacturers Association. He is the First Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors of Washington Business Week, a non-profit which teaches high school students about entrepreneurship and multi-functional business teams.

Domingo Ramon “Chikoy” Enerio is a career diplomat who has worked at the Philippines Department of Tourism for more than thirty years and has served as a tourism attaché in London, Paris, Frankfurt and Tokyo. His last stint in the government was Assistant Secretary for Tourism Planning and Promotions and COO of the Tourism Promotions Board.

Melito Salazar, Jr. is the Chamber Vice President and former chairman and president of the Chamber of Commerce of the Philippine Islands. He was formerly associate professor of the University of the Philippines and Director of the UP Institute of Small Scale Industries, Undersecretary of Trade and Industry, Managing head of the Board of Investment and Governor of BOI. A recipient of international and national awards including the Honor Award from the World Association of Small and Medium enterprises, the Tori Award for Courage, the UPAA Achievement Award for Management and the La Salle Award.

ECONOMIC FORUM I AND II SESSION 1: ECONOMIC FREEDOM INDEX: ROADMAP FOR ECONOMIC DYNAMISM AND PROSPERITY

Amb. Youngmok Kim is Former President of Korea International Cooperation Agency (KOICA). Mr. Kim is a retired diplomat, member of the UNESCO Committee on Education of Korea, and sits on the UN -based advisory board of Constitutional Court - Republic of Korea. Appointed President of the KOICA In 2013, he served in a variety of missions, including multi-lateral negotiations with North Korea on nuclear, political and economic issues. He has received recognitions for his service from the Korean government, Korean overseas organization, United States Congress, Trade Association of New York, and many other public and private institutions.

Anthony B. Kim researches international economic issues at The Heritage Foundation, with a focus on economic freedom and free trade. As research manager and senior policy analyst Kim has primary responsibility for coordinating research and production for the annual Index of Economic Freedom. Kim is co-editor of the Index, which Heritage publishes in partnership with The Wall Street Journal. Kim’s commentary and opinion pieces have been published by The Wall Street Journal’s Asia edition, The New York Post, The Washington Times, National Review Online and the Korea Herald among others.

Dr. Juan Francisco Facetti is a doctor of biochemistry. He is a professor at the National University of Asuncion and visiting researcher at the University of Paul Toulouse. He was Paraguay’s first Minister of Environment. Additionally he is a founding member of the Instituto de Desarrollo del Pensamiento Patria Sonada (IDPPS).
BUSINESS SESSION 2: ASIA/ASEAN EMERGING ECONOMIES: UNLEASHING ENTREPRENEURIAL POWER FOR PEACE AND CO-PROSPERITY

Young-Hoi Lee served as Managing Director General of Asian Development Bank, directly working under its President. Mr. Lee was previously Chairman and President of Export-Import Bank of Korea, and also Deputy Minister for Planning and Management in the Ministry of Finance and Economy. Additionally, Mr. Lee served as Executive Director at The World Bank and Senior Advisor at International Monetary Fund. Mr. Lee studied Economics at Seoul National University and received his MBA from Indiana University’s Graduate School of Business.

H.E. Nicolás Ardito Barletta served as President of Panama from 1984 to 1985. He has served as Vice President of the World Bank for Latin America and the Caribbean and Director of the Department of Economic Affairs of the Organization of American States. He was an initiator and founder of the Latin American Export Bank, a multilateral entity of Latin American countries. He is also a member of the Carter Center’s Council of Presidents and Prime Ministers of the Americas.

Kartikeya Sharma is a dynamic, visionary media entrepreneur serving as managing director of iTV Media network, an umbrella company that runs television, print and online media in India. Mr. Sharma’s entrepreneurial prowess and commitment to quality journalism has made iTV Network one of India’s fastest growing news networks with a reach of over 91 million viewers and readers. Mr. Kartikeya is an Oxford graduate with a Master’s in Business Administration from King’s College, London. He is also the owner of India’s first Pro Wrestling League.

Jose Luis U. Yulo, Jr. is President of the Chamber of Commerce of the Philippine Islands, the oldest business organization in the country. He co-founded and managed the first trade exhibit center of the country – the Philippine Center for International Trade & Exhibits. He is co-founder and former president of the Philippine Chamber of Commerce and Industry, Secretary General of the ASEAN Chambers of Commerce and Industry, and co-founding chairman of the APEC Business Council. He served as President and CEO of the Philippine International Trading Corporation and later became the President and CEO of the Philippine Stock Exchange.

Dr. Hyun Jin P. Moon, Founder and Chairman, Global Peace Foundation, see Plenary session

Thomas Field is regional representative in Latin America for the Global Peace Foundation, and the President of Instituto de Desarrollo del Pensamiento Patria Soñada, Paraguay’s leading research institution. He has lived and worked in Latin America for more than 30 years.
Global Peace Foundation

Philippine Office
205 Cedar Executive Bldg. 11,
26 Scout Tobias corner Timog Avenue 1103 • Quezon City, Philippines
Tel: 63.2.738.1465 • www.globalpeacephilippines.org
Email: gpc@globalpeacephilippines.org

Washington DC Headquarters
9320 Annapolis Road, Suite 100 • Lanham, MD 20706
Ph: 202.643.4733 • Fax: 240.667.1709
Email: info@globalpeace.org

Global Peace Foundation
@GlobalPeaceIntl
Global Peace Foundation
www.globalpeace.org