

PEACE LEARNING PROGRAM

February 24 - 27, 2020 | Belfast, Northern Ireland

Participants will explore a flexible, diverse, interactive and practical learning experience designed to empower practitioners and showcase best practices and lessons learned from unique peacebuilding projects in conflict and post-conflict

Learn from two experienced peacebuilding organizations!

- Engaging a Global Network of Peacebuilders
- Community-Driven Peacebuilding
- Identity-Based Conflicts and Resolutions
- Preventing and Countering Extremist Violence
- Evidence-Based Strategies
- Youth Capacity Building for Peace
- Digital Media Interventions
- Alternative Dispute Resolution
- Social Contact Theory and Measurement
- Uniquely Tailored Trainings and Learning

For further information please contact:
Dr. Tony Devine, tdevine@globalpeace.org and Joseph Campos-Furber jfurber@globalpeace.org

Schedule at a Glance

February 23: Arrivals in Belfast

February 24: Peace Learning Tour of Belfast. Historical and Present Context with Briefings at various Community Centers

February 25 - 26: Community-Driven Peacebuilding and Learning: Topics include Dealing with the Past; Bringing Divided Groups Together; Building Understanding, Relationships and Trust; and Engaging Diverse Stakeholders

Peacebuilding and Social Media: Learn how social media plays a significant role in this new era of conflict and peacebuilding and explore how to prevent and counter extremist radicalization and mobilization of youth. Held at the 174 Trust Building

February 27: Building Momentum for Peace

Forum: Sharing international perspectives and practical lessons in Peacebuilding as well as Data and Best Practices in Preventing Extremism. Held at the Skainos Center

February 28: Optional Cultural program / Departures

REGISTER:

<https://globalpeace.regfox.com/peace-learning-program-ireland>

Global Peace
FOUNDATION

co-operationireland
working for a future together